Lovely Hair-Radiant and Abundant. Easy to Have! Splendid Hair Grower and Beautifier Praised by Thousands.

Nowadays all up-to-date women want good-looking hair, so fluffy and abundant that it fascinates and compels admiration.

It's really a simple matter to merit this praise, since beautiful hair is a matter of care.

When your hair is dandruffy, faded, dry, streaked and scraggly, when it falls out badly and new hair does not grow, the roots must be vitalized and properly nourished. To do this quickly, safely and at little expense get from your druggist some Parisian Sage (liquid form) for home use.

This is guaranteed to quickly abolish all dandruff, check falling hair, stop all itching of the scalp year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Clarence E. Jenkins of Baltimore, had been given to them two years ago, when they were asked by the child's parents to take charge of her, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coakley of Cropley, this county, the latter Mrs. Jenkins' sister, refused to give up the little girl when a demand was made upon them by Mr. Jenkins a few weeks ago. Habeas corpus proceedings were resorted to and the case was heard by Judge Edward C. Peter in the circuit court here yesterday. The opening unchanged to % cent higher, including September at 79 to 79%, the market hardened a little more, and then underwent a sharp decline. Provisions were weak from the out-set. The chief bearish factor was tae immense stock on hand here together with absence of foreign demand.

MOTORS ARE WEAK

Special Influences Exerting Themselves on Specific Stocks-Coal a Factor.

BY STUART P. WEST.

NEW YORK. July 14.—It could not be said that the stock market today had any general tendency. Some stocks were definitely strong and at various stages moved forward. Other stocks were just as decidedly weak and a few of them broke rather badly. Wall street came down to business inclined to look upon the results of yesterday's trading as indicating that the market was becoming oversold again.

Sentiment was helped by the publication of the Lackawanna Steel report for the second quarter of the year. The Lackawanna figures, which port for the second quarter of the year. The Lackawanna figures, which were, of course, presumed to reflect conditions at the steel plants in general, made a very favorable comparison, both with the first quarter of 1920 and the second quarter of 1919. In both of these periods there had been a heavy deficit; the company had had to draw heavily upon surplus in order to pay dividends. But in the three months ended June 30 net earnings, after full allowance for taxes ings, after full allowance for taxes and after deduction of interest charges, were nearly $2,000,000, and this was enough to more than re-store to surplus the drafts of the first quarter, besides allowing for the divi-dend requirements of the second three Helped the Stock. While it was true that the period covered by the Lackawanna report did not reflect, except, perhaps, toward the very end, the coal shortage and its effect in compelling a slow-down, the figures nevertheless provided a considerable stimulus temporarily.

Lackawanna Steel ran up nearly 5 points from its low of yesterday, and this induced enough short covering to bring about advances of a point to 2 points all through the industrial list.

The Mexican oils, benefiting instead of suffering from the fuel shortage, were again very strong. The rails likewise held their ground quite well. and there was some special buying for a while in Reading and one or two of the low-priced issues.

Acute Weakness in Motors. Acute Weakness in Motors.

But whatever inclination to recovery there had been was abruptly checked toward midday by the development of acute weakness in the motor shares and in the tire group. The reasons why these two classes of stocks should be out of favor have been steadily forcing themselves more and more upon public attention.

more and more upon public attention.

Within the last few days it has been hinted that at least one of the large automobile companies was getting ready to cut prices. This morning an advertisement appeared in which the export branch of another company offered to sell for immediate department of the pany offered to sell for immediate de-livery and at cost, one-third of the purchase price to be paid down and the other two-thirds on time. It was the idea that automobile production had caught up with and gone beyond the demand that was back of the selling of motor shares. back of the selling of motor shares. The tire companies, it is well understood, are still more overstocked derstood, are still more overstocked with goods, which they are finding it hard to get rid of and on which they are also experiencing difficulty in obtaining suitable accommodation at the banks. The break in the tire shares was easily explainable by these unfavorable trade conditions. So it was an adverse situation in their respective trades that was actheir respective trades, that was ac-countable for the special weakness in American Wool and the heaviness in

FROM BOLSHEVIK TROOPS

WITH THE POLISH ARMY AT THE FRONT, June 30 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—
Lieut. Harman C. Rorison of Willmington, N. C., a pilot in the Kosciuszko squadron of American flyers with the Polish army, who was shot down within bolshevik lines recently, managed to escape by posing as an Austrian on his way home after imprisonment in Siberia.

Lieut. Rolfon was thirty miles from the Polish lines when he attacked a bolshevik infantry detachment, the reds replying with rifles and machine guns, one bullet piercing the gasoline tank of his airplane. Realizing that it would be impossible to reach the Polish front, he flew as far as possible, making a safe landing, but near bolshevik iroops. He escaped into the heavy underbrush with which the Ukraine in this part of the fighting front is carpeted, and, after two days and nights, reached headquarters of the squadron. The airplane was recovered later by a Polish cavalry unit and mechanics of the squadron.

living on the borders of Uganda and the Kongo, it is reported that whereas a wife cost four spearheads in pre-war days, sile now costs eight spearheads.
